Now ADVENTURE hits the screen!

You're searching for the enchanted Chalice - stolen by an evil magician hidden inside the Black Castle and protected by three man-eating Dragons - you will need to find certain objects which will help you in your quest, which is to return the enchanted Chalice to the inner room of the Golden Castle and receive your reward.

A magic Golden Sword will slay the Dragons - the Golden, Black and White keys are scattered throughout the Kingdom and are needed to enter their Castles' gates. The bridge which you can move will help you pass through walls in the Kingdom - but beware - if you touch the inside of the bridge whilst passing through a wall it might collapse and trap you inside the wall - AAARRRGHHH!!!

As you search for the pathway through the blue labyrinth watch out for Dragons - your sword will kill them but if you get eaten, you will need to "reincarnate" yourself by pressing Game Reset - this puts you back outside the Golden Castle gates, but also brings back to life any Dragon you've killed.

.... And all this is on level one!!

On level two The Kingdom is much larger and a Black Bat moves the objects around whilst you're searching, making life quite hard. The Catacombs in which you can only see a short way, must be got through to reach the White Castle. Inside this Castle are the Red Dungeons and deep inside these is a secret room containing the Black Key - threading your way towards the Black Castle you enter, only to find the Grey Dungeon and more Catacombs!! But be bold - you're very nearly there - guarded by the Red Dragon - the hardest to kill - is the enchanted Chalice - so kill the Dragon and return it to the Golden Castle with the Chalice and get your reward!!

And if that's not hard enough - just a hint - try level 3 with the left difficulty switch in the "A" position.

ADVENTURE - used with Joystick Controllers.
